10.5 No party may commence any court proceedings in relation to the whole or part of the Dispute until 30 days after service of the ADR notice, provided that the right to issue proceedings is not prejudiced by a delay.

10.6 If the Dispute is not resolved within 30 days after service of the ADR notice, or either party fails to participate or to continue to participate in the mediation before the expiration of the said period of 30 days, or the mediation terminates before the expiration of the said period of 30 days, the Dispute shall be finally resolved by the courts of England and Wales in accordance with clause 19 of this Agreement.

12.1 If the MRO does not comply with any term of this Agreement and where MedCo is satisfied that a written warning or further written warning is not appropriate, MedCo may, without liability, suspend the Services or such part of the Services as is relevant until such time as the non-compliance has been remedied to MedCo's reasonable satisfaction (either by way of audit or as otherwise agreed by MedCo)

(b) enters into liquidation whether compulsorily or voluntarily (otherwise than for the purposes of and followed by amalgamation or reconstruction of insolvency) or compounds its creditors or has a receiver, manager, administrator or administrative receiver appointed over all or any substantial part of its undertaking, assets or income or takes or suffers any similar action in consequence or debt; or

(c) undergoes a Change of Control (unless MedCo has provided its written consent in accordance with the terms of this Agreement).

13.3 The MRO shall be entitled to terminate this Agreement forthwith by written notice to MedCo in the event that MedCo commits any material breach of this Agreement and has failed (in the case of a breach capable of remedy) to remedy the breach within 30 days of the receipt of a written notice from an Authorised User specifying the breach, requiring that it be remedied and indicating that failure to remedy the breach may result in termination of this Agreement.

13.4 On termination of this Agreement for any reason:

(a) the MRO will no longer have access to the Database or the Database Data;

- (b) the accrued rights, remedies, obligations and liabilities of the parties as at termination shall not be affected, including the right to claim damages in respect of any breach of this Agreement which existed at or before the date of termination, subject to the limitations set out in clause 9;

- (d) termination or suspension of this Agreement shall not affect the requirement under Clause 3.2.1(a) to upload Case Data, if access to the MedCo Database is permitted by MedCo. The period of time the MRO may continue accessing the MedCo Database, for the purpose of uploading Case Data, shall be determined by the MedCo Board.

14. Confidentiality

- 14.1 Each party shall ensure that all Confidential Information of the other party is kept confidential and shall apply the same security measures and degree of care to the Confidential Information it applies to its own Confidential Information. Neither party shall make or cause or permit to be made or caused any use or disclosure of any Confidential Information except to the extent permitted under this Agreement.
- 14.2 Each party shall be permitted to disclose Confidential Information of the other party to the extent that it is required to do so by any Applicable Law or regulations or by any public, governmental, supervisory or regulatory authority or by any legally binding order of any court or tribunal provided in any such case that:

- 14.4 Either party may disclose Confidential Information to its Personnel, officers, insurers or reinsurers who require such Confidential Information for the purpose of carrying out the party's obligations under this Agreement. - 14.5 Neither party shall make any announcement in relation to the matters contemplated in this clause, in each case, save with the prior written consent of the other party.

- 14.7 Upon termination of this Agreement, at the request of MedCo, the MRO shall destroy or return to MedCo all documents and materials (and any copies) containing, reflecting, incorporating or based on MedCo's Confidential Information and certify in writing to MedCo that it has complied with this clause.
- 14.8 Each party acknowledges that damages alone would not be an adequate remedy for the breach of this Clause 14, accordingly, without prejudice to any other rights and remedies it may have, each party shall be entitled to the granting of equitable relief (including without limitation injunctive relief) concerning any threatened or actual breach of this Clause 14.
- 14.9 The provisions of clause 14 shall survive the termination or expiry of this Agreement.

The standards are written in broad terms and are designed to apply to all Authorised Users, MROs and Experts as far as possible. MedCo acknowledge that some of the standards may not apply to all Authorised Users, MROs, or Experts.

MedCo have however set out general guidelines to provide a little more detail as to what is expected of you. If you have any queries, please contact enquiries@medco.org.uk.
